NEAR EAST DRIFT

KEMAL'S CONCILIATORY MOVE.

MEETING PROBABLE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 29.
Replying to General Harrington's telegram, Mustapha Kemal declares that his troops will not advance further. He desires that no incident shall occur and he will seize the earliest opportunity for meeting General Harrington.

BRITISH NAVAL FORCES.

GIBRALTAR, September 29.
A flotilla leader and eight destroyers of the First Flotilla of the Atlantic Fleet, have arrived here en route to the Near East, also two submarines.

AUSTRALIA'S ATTITUDE.

MELBOURNE, September 29.
Speaking in the House of Representatives, the Prime Minister (Mr. W. M. Hughes) said that Australia was praying there would not be a war, but if it came Britain would be in the right. Australia had previously put in the field a larger army than the Turks could now muster. She would do the same again if necessary.

WAR RUMOUR SLUMPS' MARKET.

LONDON, September 29.
The nervousness created by the Near East situation was exemplified by a slump on the Liverpool cotton market to day, owing to a baseless rumour that Britain had declared war on Turkey. An authoritative denial was subsequently issued.

READY TO FIGHT.

LONDON, September 29.
At the conclusion of a further series of Cabinet meetings anxiety in official circles was in no wise eased. It is understood the government regard the Turkish action as an infringement of the Allied Note. They decided that it was impossible to permit the Kemalists to remain or reconnoitre positions in the neutral zone.

They therefore informed the military authorities they would have complete support in demanding the withdrawal of the Kemalists. They are leaving the question of the time limit to the discretion of General Harrington, and Admiral Brock, the High Commissioners. In the meantime the Cabinet is standing by ready for emergencies, and expecting an early development.

HOME COTTON TRADE.

SEVERE DEPRESSION.

LONDON, September 29.
The question of the continued severe depression in the Lancashire cotton trade was discussed at Manchester by a meeting of representatives of over 50 per cent. of the spinning companies. Leading spinners pointed out that most of the concerns are gradually losing their capital. Only immediate drastic action can avert financial crisis. Inquiry into the question of fixing minimum prices for standard counts of yarn was suggested, also curtailment of production.

STATS WIN UPHELD.

PANAMA, September 29.
The French Boxing Federation has endorsed the decision of the judges in the Carpenter Siki fight. They have approved Siki's claim to the light heavy-weight championship of the world.

CRUISER FOR MACAO.

LISBON, September 29.
The cruiser "República" has been ordered to proceed to Macao from South America.

HONGKONG TRADE.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT.

Cotton piece goods and fancy cotton goods.—A fair amount of business has been done during the interval in Dyed and Fancy Goods. There is no improvement as regards Grey and Whites, states the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce's fortnightly report.

Cotton Yarn.—Owing to the continued decline in prices, dealers are confining their operations to only a few bales at a time for their immediate requirements, a reduction in the rates taking place on each occasion. During this interval prices have declined $4 per bale, and sales amounting to 1,500 bales, have been effected.

Quotations:—No. 10s. $145/100. No. 12s. $163/178. No. 14s. $178/190. No. 20s. $178/194. Arrival 1/100. Shipments mth. Sales 1,000 bales. Unsold stock 17,000 bales. Bargains 5,000 bales.

Woollens.—Small sales of Blankets and lastings are reported but the market is very dull.

Raw Cottons.—There was no demand for Indian Staple and the hundred bales which were in stock have been shipped to Japan. Quotations are nominal. Indian descriptions at $30/35 Chinese grade at $32/38.

Metals.—Business has been done in Wire Nails 1 1/2 inch at $8.20 to $8.25, 3 7/8 inch at $7.60. There has also been a fair business booked in Galvanized Wire 18' to 22 gauge at $12.60, 18 to 17 gauge at $10. Bars have been placed at $1.65 to $4.70.

I demand during the last fortnight has been distinctly better, but this is the reason when dealers fill their requirements for the China New Year trade; it is to be expected. It is doubtful whether the quantities booked come up to the average. Scrap material is quiet. Dealers are not willing to pay the prices as present asked. Glasgow Hosiery is on offer at about $3.80 to $4.40, and Plate Cuttings at about $3.60 without finding buyers interested. Tinplates are dull locally held stocks being on offer at cheaper prices than replacing costs.

Flour market report. Stock: About 600,000 sacks.

Quotations—American Patent $3.75 per sack American Straight $2.70 per sack American Cut of $2.70 per sack Shanghai Flour $2.90 per sack Australian No. 1 $2.85 per sack.

Southern:—market quiet.

Java Sugar:—market quiet.

Philippine Sugar:—market dull.

Saltpetre:—Strong demand as Fire Crackers' season approaching.

TO SECRETARIES OF CLUBS AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS.

All preliminary notices of forthcoming meetings, lectures and entertainments, sent for insertion in the news columns of the China Mail are charged for at the rate of $1 each, (as announced in May and June of last year) providing that they do not occupy more than four lines. In future if this space is exceeded they will be placed in the "Advertiser" column at the prevailing rate.

ADVERSARIA.

The last time, to no one pathes ing a thing for the last time. It is human enough to feel that way, perhaps; but if you think it over in cold blood it seems a bit morbid and silly. Charles Lamb seems to have felt it when he left the job from which he had long been yearning, to be free. The last visit to the dentist, when he pulls your last tooth out, ought to be an exception, I think.
Yet there are people so sentimental that they would feel a sweet sadness on their last day in jail. There are so many "last times" in a normal life, and every one of them is a sort of little death to the sentimental. A fond farewell—and away he goes to make the same old fool of himself in some other but similar place. The only case where I can recognize such ineluctability as justifiable is that of the man rising from his bed to go to bed to go and get married; and he is too besotted with hopes to feel it.

Yachting, however, is one of those circumstances which alter cases. The last cruise —ah! How appropriate to that! The very beginning of it is a teasing of the mind. To which of the many he's loved anchored shall it be? The dear hills and well remembered skylines the waterfalls (just now at their fullest and best), the clean sandy playgrounds of a long and happy past.
The shipmate of countless sweet and salubrious weekends. No! After all such feelings are inexpressible and it is better not to try. Words with all their magic cannot frame a friendship, nor reveal the secret pell-mell of the heart. Sung!

None of the papers
late me. seems to have mentioned LOGAN the great theme of the late Jimmie Logan's conversation. He loved to speak he marched with Lord Roberts to Kandahar. The stories of a "BONNET" friend may be too generous; some times, for the purposes of the strict historian; but their very generosity is evidence alike

Peakites spit at him for editions, dislodged Bolshevik. Whereas when the Private Citizen is asked what he thinks about this Near East business, he blithely (and safely) answers that he knows nothing about it. "Fact is, old thing, I've been so busy with my stamp collecting that I've had no time to read the telegrams. Say! You tell me all about it, there's a good chap." And he happily thinks about stamps while the other contentedly pour out a monologue about the Armenians, and Tibetans, and the Turkish tobacco interests.

No greater stupi-
THE GENEROUS dity has ever
SCOT emanated from us Englishmen than the legend of Scott's meanness (x parsimony). It is crudely repeated in the London Morning Post, which I am about to quote. But before I quote I want to say that we should all remember the possibility, almost the probability, that the label was reinvented by a humorous Scotman.
Being an Englishman I take it seriously, and censure the English newspaper for a joke that is neither true nor funny. Lord Strathclyde formerly Alexander Ure, was solicitor general for Scotland and afterwards Lord Advocate, and has been enjoying a pension of £3,750; which he has now voluntarily relinquished. The Morning Post included in its comments the following: "That anyone should surrender a pension in these grasping days seems almost too impossible to be true; that he should be not only a lawyer, but a Scotsman, does not lessen our amazement." If the only Scots we knew were those we meet in the Far East, we would have an absolutely com'ny legend about them. We would talk of them as an extravagantly generous race, and perhaps even sneer at them as spontiflits. For they are intensely sociable and everlasting insatiable "standing treat." How the hellion legend ever arose I cannot guess, for the thirst that was once very strong in rural Scotland for many was known also in England. Perhaps Scott's humour started it, for the benefit of Aberdonians, and we English took the joke for earnest, as we often do. It is a legend we ought to drop, if only because it is so stale and so absurdly in-applicable.

I was waiting in the
IN A Yokohama Specie Bank BANK until someone saw fit to ask my business. It was the usual long wait; but worth while.
A young American was annoyed because the compradore wouldn't change some pesos for him. He came over to my counter, and by vocal efforts attracted the clerk who had been vainly trying to catch. He complained. The Japanese smiled.
Now it is not as well known as it should be, amongst foreigners, that that irritating Japanese smile is good manners. It is apologetic. It intirritated the young American. "All right," he hawed. "You can stand there and laugh at me. We bank with you at your eastern branch; and we can change our account.
Seeing we are your clients, it is up to you to change my pesos for me. You won't. You laugh. All right." The tone of the last phrase was threatening; it importuned that things would not always be all right. I gathered from the clerk, after the angry American had gone, that there was no demand for pesos just then.

If the Government
WARNING happens to have a healthy end in it, it isn't using at the moment. I suggest that it give him a tin of sandwiches and a thermos flask and send him out to count the new Chinese graves appearing on our hillsides away from the recognized cemeteries. They seem to me to be multiplying fast, and if Hongkong isn't careful it will suffer the fate of large areas in China, abandoned to the useless uses of the dead.

Study the existing
REGISTRATION Registration law
(a War Measure left over) and consider it. Ask yourself if it is necessary. Examine the claims of those who say it is. Remember that British liberties and British sentiments were before the war, and agitate, agitate. It is good exercise, and wholesome. Remember that the appetite for power grows on what it feeds on, and that every inch you give it more, it strives for an inch. Quite like me; be strong.

BETWEEN the journalist
ON NEAR and the private citizen EAST the latter can easily be shown to be the best of it. Arise a Near-East crisis, and the journalist is faced with but one choice. He must say something, and if he says what he doesn't think he deserves himself till the shame wears off. If he says that the British Cabinet should be shot at dawn, and the French Ministers hanged at twilight, the Boos tell him that four copies less than usual were sold that evening. Dr. Williams, the pill man, withdraws his advertisement because he doesn't like the policy or tone of the paper; and if the writer is reported going up in the Peak tram, the lily." I do not want to see purple trees, or trees of any but natural colour. It is bad enough to see them clipped and pruned to shapes men fancy. I issue permission here that he knows nothing about it.

"Fact is, old thing, I've been so busy with my stamp collecting
that I've had no time to read the telegrams. Say! You tell me all about it, there's a good chap." And he happily thinks about stamps while
the other contentedly pour out a monologue about the Armenians, and Tibetans, and the Turkish tobacco interests.

After the typhoon of a
INDIAN week ago, and the coolth SUMMER it brought, men spoke to each other, and said that the hot weather was definitely gone.
Slight changes were made in the diater of clothing. Our pueri-climate plied its usual joke on them, and for Wednesday and Thursday provided an Indian summer, a hot spell that fell all the more for the previous few days relaxation.
It was so hot on Wednesday that a house on the Peak took fire and was burnt up.

"Parting is such sweet PARTING sorrow," said Romeo (if it wasn't Juliet) "that I could say good night till it were morrow." We all know (I hope) just what that means. We have all lingered at the door, or the garden gate, bidding the beloved goodbye, but returning for one last kiss, and another, and another. That's different. This business of parting here is another story. I have heard that there are people who love lots of social engagements, and who are ever prouder than when pulling out a little engagement book to see if they have a free night the week after next.
It would kill me. I know it would because I am half dead now. You see, I am making another of my little journeys, and my friends have been forcing little and dinners upon me all t' last week, to strengthen me for the journey, I suppose. They meant it kindly, and I love them because they are kind; but little did they realize my sufferings. Not only did I have to put on a collar; but that engagement prevented me from dropping in at my usual haunts. I want a more gorge at the Restaurant of Seventeen Delectable Favours, and I desired to do it in at Nagasaki Joe's to say goodbye to the boys. Also I wanted to pack. Now a lot of them threaten to come to the steamer to see me off. I suppose they mean it kindly, also; but it brings a lamentable ignorance of the new cities, of a modern traveller.
When I was a boy going to school I hated my folks to come to the station, and I piloted for farewell at home.
Now the object is even stronger.
When I go abroad a steamer there are lots of little jobs I like to do to distract me, such as taking possession of my fair half of the cabin equipment; getting good places on the bath-list, and so on. Instead of which I am expected to hang round listening to people saying all the silly, meaningless things they do say when "a'ing people off." He does, how do they know that somebody else's wife will not be there taking a fond farewell, case where "two's company"? Those who want to be kind to me, and consider my inclination in the matter, will not bother me on the steamer. I shall be too busy to speak to those who do, and that's fair warning.

The Compulsory Re-
I'M HARD gistration isn't having TO PLEASE failed, they are now issuing printed questionnaire to all men likely to be of use in any crisis like that of the late strike. I notice that all those who respond will be enrolled as special constables.
My objection this time is to the fact that the police are doing this enquiry. Is it not possible to get our police to mnl their own proper business? I maintain that they have enough to do and that it doesn't get done.

Now somebody will be sure to come back with the crux being rejoinder that special constabulary are legitimate police business. May be so. In that case I beg that the real issue be not lost sight of. Special police are the least need we have at such times. Order in strike time can be maintained, without special constables. I saw during the last strike "special" bullying and provoking Chinese—most improper. The real object of this enquiry is to find out who can help to carry on essential services, stoppage of which may be threatened by a strike. Consequently what we want is a Corps of Essential Services constables. My suggestion is that they be organized without military or police rank. There is so much unim-portance for our police to cope with that I want to see all their energies devoted to it.

And so, if you please,
CHINESE that's that. I'm tired, and want a long rest. So do you, I dare say.
Well, anyway—cheers!
But before I dry up, I guessing must give you a little COMPETITION local story which you may use as a guessing competition. You have to guess what the parties were. One was a famous lecturer. The other was a Great Personage. The lecturer had invited the G.P. to previous lectures, but he had hitherto discovered quite valid reasons for being elsewhere on those occasions. To this particular lecture, for which tickets had been issued to the public, the Great Personage actually went. He sat it through, and if you know the fatal facility of that lecturer for logarithms, you would admire the heroism. When time ended his suffering the G.P. hastened home and gasped: "Boy! Whisky soda Quick. For mercy's sake". Taking a gulp and a long breath the G.P. said: "Never, never before have I listened to a lecture (gulp) from which it was possible to derive such a total lack of information."

MISSING FARMS.

JAPANESE NEWSPAPER'S CHARGES.

TOKYO, Sept. 30.

Revelations of all-ged intrigues regarding disposal of arms are continued by the Kokin which now alleges that Japanese militarists have completed plans to establish a buffer state in conjunction with Chang Tso-lin and Dieterichs, and the organization of a financial syndicate to assist both partners. The War Office spokesman quoted by the Kokin denies there is a plan for establishing a buffer state, but admits the disappearance of part of the confiscated arms and ammunition, the destination of which is now being investigated by the Foreign Office.—Reuters.

BANK'S MISSING LAKHS.

MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED.

The mystery surrounding the dis-ap-pearance of two lakhs of dollars from the local office of the International Banking Corporation has not yet been cleared up.

Inquiries made by a China Mail reporter at the bank this morning elicited that it has been established that the vault and safe have not been tampered with and it is equally clear that no bookkeeping mistake has occurred.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

On October 1, the sun rises at 6.15 and sets at 6.12. On October 31, it rises at 6.27 and sets at 5.58.

The Chief Officer of the a.s.
"Duras" had $130 stolen from a locked drawer in his cabin during his absence yesterday morning.

Forthcoming Crown land sales include 26,793 sq. ft. on Tsing I Island for an upset price of $268; and 12,000 sq. ft. Magazine Gap Road, for an upset price of $1,440.

Knocked down by motor-car No.
125 at the junction of Pokfulum Road and Queen's Road West yesterday, a coolie is now in hospital receiving treatment to his head and leg.

The cabin of the Chief Engineer of the a.s. "Providence" was entered yesterday while he was in the engine-room. A drawer was broken open and jewellery and money worth $503 were stolen.

A coolie employed at a shop in Wingkat Street, was yesterday admitted to hospital suffering from injuries to his head received through a fall in attempting to alight from a taxi car in Des Vaux Road West.

As it appears that British income tax repayment in many cases will be claimable for three years (the limit allowed). Mr. W. R. Fairther, Income Tax Specialist, of 67-69, Chepstow, points out for the benefit of our readers that no claim for the year 1919-20 will be admitted after April 5, 1923.

The Public is reminded that it will be possible to book seats at Montreux's on Tuesday next for "I'll Leave It To You" to be played on the nights of the 12th, 14th and 16th October. Quite a rush for seats is anticipated for the A. D. C.'s production of this light comedy so that it will be advisable to book early.— Advertiser.

A fire broke out at 7.45 p.m. yesterday in a stonecutters' workshop at Footauft village, Salwan, owned by Tean Teak, quarrymaster of 178, Shaukiwan West. In spite of the efforts of the district police, the matched was completely gutted. Damage is estimated at $100.

of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Officer Administering the Government of the Colony of Hongkong and its Dependencies and Vice Admiral of the Royal Navy.

Proposed alterations to the rules were next discussed.

A proposal to add a "citizen representative" to the Committee was approved, although Mr. R. W. Hamilton suggested that the presence of the Captain and Vice Captain of the Health and Building Ordinance

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

KOWLOON CRICKET CLUB.

The Kowloon Cricket Club held its annual meeting yesterday. The President (Dr. O. Forsyth) was in the chair.

After the annual report, the substance of which had already been presented, the Chairman congratulated the Club on a very successful year as regards both sport and finance.
Referring to the income derived from the bar, which amounted to $23,630, he expressed the opinion that the profits should have been larger than $4,000. He suggested to the incoming committee that a new system of checking the bar accounts be adopted.
There was a leakage somewhere, which should be rectified at once.—(applause.)

Dr. Forsyth thanked Mr. Waller for the handsome shield presented as a memento of the Club's winning both Cricket League shields, and proposed the adoption of the report and balance-sheet.

This was seconded by Mr. L. J.
Blackburn and carried unanimously.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

In proposing the election of the President, Mr. R. E. Lindsell eulogized Dr. Forsyth's past services to the Club and mentioned particular instances of his generosity.

The proposition was carried with applause.

Other officers were elected as follow:—Vice-President, Mr. R. E.
Lindsell; Captain, Mr. J. P. Robinson;
Vice-Captain, Mr. B. D. Evans; Hon-Secretary, Mr. P. H. Heathcoat; Hon-treasurer, Mr. H. E. Stevens; General Committee; Messrs. E. Abraham, H.

TELEPHONE CHARGES.
CALCUTTA CORPORATION'S PROTEST.

Following the great telephone controversy here, the appended extract from The Englishman, Calcutta, dated September 4, will be read with interest:

An interested and important item of business at the meeting of the Calcutta Corporation on Wednesday next will be the confirmation of a resolution of the Gas, etc., Special Committee characterising the present telephone service as very unsatisfactory and protesting against the increase in charges.

The resolutions of the Gas, etc., Special Committee are as follows:

(1) That the Committee record their protest against the increase in telephone charges.

(2) That the Committee are of opinion that the rebate of 25 per cent allowed by the Bengal Telephone Coy., in the case of the Corporation is inadequate and should be increased to 33-1/3 per cent.

(3) That in the opinion of the Committee the Bengal Telephone Co. should grant a rebate of 25 per cent to the public if bills are paid at the office of the company within ten days of the due date.

(4) That in the opinion of the Committee the present telephone service is very unsatisfactory. They recommend that the Bengal Telephone Coy. be called upon to improve the service and maintain it in an efficient state.

NEWSPAPER'S COMMENT.

In the course of an article on the proposed telephone extension, the Englishman said:—It is also proposed to extend lines within the next few months to an automatic exchange at Lyallpur with a trunk to Lahore, another at Amritsar with additional trunk lines between Amritsar and Lahore Cantonment. The automatic exchange at Lahore already gives proof of its utility in the rapid progress it has made. The exchange at Multan will shortly be ready for operations and it is expected that the exchanges at Kasur and Ferozepore will also be opened. Kasuri is also to be linked with a trunk line to Sinda.

It is also proposed to install a 500 line automatic exchange (Ped-Couer Co.) at Cawnpore having an ultimate capacity of 2,000 lines. Automatic apparatus is also available for the proposed exchange at Allahabad, and it is hoped to instal it as soon as possible. The installation of automatic exchange in the coal fields near Calcutta at Sindhi, Jheria, Loyabad, and later at Durgapur, Asansol, and Raniganj, is only a question of time.

GREAT VIOLINIST HERE.

CONCERT ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Mischa Piastor, one of the world's great violinists, gives a concert here in the City Hall next week. The press tributes he has received everywhere he has played testify his talent. A matured musician whose chief aim is to present music with fitting regard for its innate beauty, Piastor has been described as a very admirable, spirited and scholarly player, with imagination. He produces a wonderful sweetness of tone and his executive ability is great. His playing is a triumph of song of brilliant youth and balanced art; of tune; of rhythm, of tempo. His double stopping is richly effective and his intonation infallibly right. With this promise coming from far, Piastor has already visited local music lovers and repair to the City Hall on Wednesday afternoon confident of an unusually fine performance.

Mischa Piastor was born in Kerz Russia, in the year 1891. He first studied under his father and then entered the famous Petrograd Conservatoire of Music where he studied under Professor Auer having gained extensive knowledge, he left the Conservatoire in 1910 with first class honours, including the principal gold medal. Since then he has played in the world's principal cities.

PRAYA SCUFFLE.

FOUGHT EVEN WHEN THEY FELL INTO THE WATER.

A Shanghai Chinese was this morning fined $5 or seven days by Mr. E. W. Hamilton for disorderly conduct, namely fighting in Connaught Road yesterday.

Inspector Macdonald said defendant was in the habit of pestering a countryman for money. Yesterday they met on the Praya, and a fight ensued as the result of the other man refusing to give the defendant any more money. They fought until they both fell into the harbour, and continued the fight in the water until both were "fished" out by the police.

The other man failed to appear in Court when his name was called, and his bail of $5 was estreated.

CURRENT COMMENT.

WHAT THE CHINESE PAPERS ARE SAYING.

CANTON'S CRIME WAVE.

WHY HE RAN.

BASKET'S SINISTER CONTENTS.

A Chinese detective was on duty in Munwh Lau at 6 o'clock this morning, when he saw a man carrying a heavy basket. He asked the man what the basket contained, but the latter did not reply. Instead he started to run. The detective tripped him over and caught him. Inside the basket were found two revolvers, two rifle barrels and 630 rounds of ammunition.

Defendant said he did not know what the basket contained. He ran to stop a man walking a moderate distance in front, for he had engaged him to carry the basket.

Sentence of twelve months jail was passed.

V.R.C. GALA.

LYON WINS 220 YARDS CHAMPIONSHIP.

Another big gathering of spectators attended the second day's sport of the Victoria Recreation Club's annual 3 day swimming gala yesterday afternoon, when another fine programme of sports was enjoyed by all.

The feature event was the 220 yards race for the Championship of the Colony, which was won by D. Lyon, Johnston the all-round Champion of the Colony again did not swim. Liang and Jack were the other two contestants in the race, and Lyon won from them by about half a length. Liang had to put up stiff fight against Jack to secure second place. A. May was in fine form for the 100 yards boy's championship and won an easy race. J. Montalto was second. The 100 yards race for the Championship of the Army and Navy had to be postponed, as there were few entrants for the event.

WATER POLO.

LEAGUE CLOSED.

V.R.C. WINNERS.

The Hongkong Water Polo League is completed. The last match of the season was played between the Lusitano Recreation Club and the R.G.A., and was won by the Portuguese by the only goal scored. The V.R.C. are again Champions of the league, having won every match of the season. The Lusitanas and the United Athletic Club tie for runners-up honours with 10 points each.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

RESULTS OF THE 10 WEEKS COMPETITION.

The hidden name answers—Sam, Caroline, Polly, Jane, Nora, Richard, Hope, Mabel, Peter, Edna.

Prize Winners:—Richard Wong, Parvin Ruttoro, Edna Batalha, Elka Batalha, Jean M. W. Fouka, Hilda Sousa.

Consolation Prizes:—Jean Ho Tung (9), Christopher James (9), Edna Cowen (9), Olive White (9), Arthur White (7), Margaret Cameron (9), Theodore Cameron (9).

My dear Children.

There were a number of entries for this competition, which seem to have been a popular one, and I am glad that so many of you were interested in it and followed it up for the ten weeks.

As once before, some of you gave me a surprise, e.g., finding hidden names which I had not seen myself!

One or two instead of the name "Hope" for the seventh week found "Nan" and that I counted as equally correct.

C. James found "Eric" for the fourth week instead of "Richard" ("You will never be rich, arduous worker though you are." Very good Christopher!).

Then Jean Ho Tung gave me "Jane" and "Nan" for the 4th week.

I hope that you will all like your prizes. Sometimes it quite puzzles me to know what to send you and then I try to think what I liked when I was as old as you and hope that you will like the same kind of things!

Your loving,

PETER PAN.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Jean Ho Tung.—It was quite all right your printing that week.

Edna Cowen.—Thank you for your nice letter. I am quite well again now thank you and was sorry not to be able to send a story for you that one week.

Margaret Cameron.—What a pity you could not find that one answer but I hope all the same that you will like your consolation prize.

Elka and Edna Batalha.—Your answers were very carefully typed. Do you type them yourselves, I wonder?

SNIP AND SNOB TRY TO KNIT.

Mary was knitting one day. She was making some socks for her father's birthday. They were meant to be a surprise for him as she had never done anything of the kind before except a woollen muller. Snip and Snob who were sitting near her watched her needles as they flashed in and out.

"I suppose Mary likes doing that" said Snip to his brother. "But it seems a slow business. She has been at it for week."

"Yes it does seem to take a long time," agreed Snop. "And I heard her saying yesterday that she simply must get them finished for the birthday to-morrow."

"What are you two doggies nut trying about?" asked Mary, looking up from her work but she did not wait for an answer and added hastily as her eyes fell on the clock, "Oh how late it is! I must go or I shall miss my music lesson and then there will be trouble. And I don't know how I am going to get this last sock done in time." And she bundled it up together, put it in her work basket and hurried out of the room.

Snip was darting after her, for the dogs always went with her to her music lesson, when Snop caught hold of his tail and pulled him back.

"Don't be so rough, Snop," snapped Snip. "Whatever did you do that for?"

"Come here," whispered Snop, "I have an idea."

"What is it?" whined Snip curiously. Just then Mary was heard calling, "Snip, Snop, where are you? I am going now."

"Hide," urged Snop and although Snip could not understand what this was all about he crept under the sofa and when Mary popped her head round the door there was no one to be seen.

"They must have gone on," Mary said aloud. "And anyway I cannot wait to find them now." And off she went again.

As soon as the front door had slammed the dogs came out from their hiding place.

"Now," said Snip, "What is it all about?"

"Why cannot we finish Mary's sock for her?" asked Snop and, as he said it, he looked at his brother rather doubtfully out of the corner of his eye for he knew it was an extraordinary idea.

"You cannot knit," Snip replied in a puzzled tone, "And I am sure that I do not know how to either."

"No—but we can try!" went on Snop hopefully. "We have been watching Mary for ever so long and it seems to me that if you hold that shiny stick and I take the wool in my mouth and pull it round it that is all that there is to be done."

"All right, let us try," agreed Snip.

"Mary will be very pleased if we do finish it."

So he got on to the table, fished the sock out of the basket and jumped with it on to the floor.

"Now then," said Snop excitedly and he picked up the wool and ran round the needle with it whilst Snip held up the work.

"After that Mary seems to give it a kind of poke," Snip told him and he tried to do this. But alas some of the stitches fell off the needle and the wool became hopelessly tangled up.

"Oh dear, what shall we do now?" groaned Snop. "That was a silly kind of poke you gave it Snip."

"Well anyway something has to be done and how could I help it getting muddled up?" retorted his brother.

They were both getting hot and feeling rather cross with one another when in came Mary's mother.

"What are you doing?" she exclaimed. "What a muddle

WHERE THE DINNER WENT.

MAGISTRATE AND A TAN-TALISING WIFE.

A wife who gave her dog her husband's dinner after the animal had snatched at him charged him at Mary-lebone with assault.

The accused was John Singleton, of Little Park street, Marylebone, and it was alleged that because his wife gave him stewed steak and vegetable instead of boiled bacon for dinner he threw the lot into the fireplace and then buried some china at her and pinned her against the wall by the throat.

The husband retorted that she threw the dinner into the fireplace. "And didn't you then call Jack, the dog, and give him the food?" he asked.

"Yes," she replied. "I had to be thankful to the dog because it snatched at you and made you let go my throat."

The wife, asked if she injured her husband by throwing a cup at him said that whenever she got a chance to defend herself she "scratched him terribly," with the result that he had had "most terrible faces" but she had never thrown anything at him.

Mr. Symmons remarked that she was an aggravating and tantalising woman. He ordered the husband to keep the peace for twelve months.
